HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

The division at Pueblo, Col., is constantly adding names to its roster.

Division 1 has several candidates awaiting the degrees and should soon have an initiation.

Last Sunday the Hibernians turned out well in the parade honoring Apostolic Delegate Monsignor Bon-zano at Columbus, Ohio.

If it were not for the active work of the Ancient Order in America this country would never know how large a debt it owes to the Irish race.

Every member should attend at least one meeting a month. This will encourage the officers and greatly assist in the work of securing candidates.

A first class degree team has been organized by the Omaha Ladies' Auxiliary, who will soon institute a juvenile division for girls from twelve to sixteen years old.

Division 3 meets Monday night and not again until after the Fourth of July. All members are urged to be present at this meeting and hear the reports that will be read.

The receipts for the Hibernian Irish fair in Chicago amounted to $10,000. They will be used for the Emmet Memorial Hall, where the last national convention was held.

Members of Division 2 have begun work to increase their membership. They have a good field from which a large membership could easily be recruited for a big initiation.

Division 1 will meet next Tuesday night at Falls City Hall and it is hoped there will be a good attendance. The business to be transacted is important and of interest to all members.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Duluth, Minn., had a big initiation at their last meeting. Mrs. Sara Murphy, County President, has been busy getting new members for a number of divisions.

Just now there is a lethargy in local Hibernian circles that should not exist. Members should wake up and take more interest in strengthening and upbuilding the grand old order.

Our Ladies' Auxiliary will hold an interesting meeting Wednesday night. The ladies are having a most successful year and are doing a great work. Those who attend Wednesday night will be well entertained.

The Ancient Order and Ladies' Auxiliary of Portland, Ore., chartered a special train for the members who attended the dedication of the new church at Beaverton last Sunday.
 Father O'Flynn, their pastor, is County Chaplain.

Tickets for the Hibernian Social Club moonlight excursion next month are being eagerly sought. The members now feel confident that they will realize a nice sum to add to the building fund for the proposed Hibernian hall and home.

KANSAS CITY TOMORROW.
 Joe Cantillon's Minneapolis aggregation will play again this afternoon and Charlie Carr's Kansas City team will be here tomorrow for a three-game series and will play a doubleheader on one of their dates on account of a postponement during their last visit here. The fans hope to see the Colorado team and the crowd, as many blame the wily Blues' owner for the poor schedule handed to Louisville and one or two of the other strong teams. The poor showing of the club since its arrival home has been principally through lack of pitching material.
 Landrum and Powell being overworked and the rest of the staff not calling for much, although Smith has shown flashes of form at different times. The hitting and fielding of the team is top notch, and outside of the mound artists Louisville possesses the best club in the association, and with a fair corps of pitchers would have been out in front in the pennant race.

RETAIL LEAF TOBACCO.
 Thomas F. Dolan and John J.
 Dwan have just established what promises to fill a long felt want in this district, having established a retail leaf tobacco store at 1135 West Market street, and are making a specialty of selling small quantities to the consumers, with five different grades to choose from. This should prove a boon to the many smokers who prefer to smoke pure leaf tobacco, but have not been able to purchase it.

SACRED HEART WINNER.
 The Sacred Heart school, Seventeenth and Broadway, won a notable victory in the Palmer Company penmanship contest, and is now the recipient of the handsome gold medal offered for the best class in penmanship in the parochial schools of the diocese of Louisville. This class literally walked away with its opponents, receiving 101 diplomas for perfect penmanship, or nearly double that received by any competitor.

POLICE HEROES.
 Each of the seven police heroes for the year is Irish, says the New York Morning Telegraph. There's Murray, Lawlor, Thornton, Sheehan, McMullen, Connor and Shelly. Aside from the majority of racial percentage in their favor on the force the showing is excellent for the green.

MILITARY FIELD MASS.
 A military field mass will be celebrated in Rockefeller Park, Cleveland, on Sunday, June 29, under the auspices of the First Brigade of Ohio Knights of St. John. This will be the first service of the kind ever held in the Forest City, and it is expected that 50,000 people will attend. Right Rev. Bishop Farrelly has been invited to preside and a large number of priests will assist at the solemn and beautiful service.

BEAK FRUIT LONG.
 Orange trees that are given attention will continue to bear fruit until they are 100 years old.

HINTS ON STYLE.
 For dressy tailored costumes white moire and faille silk are most fashionable.

A new trick in millinery is the use of white or black net veils over the face.

The new pokes have curious little cubistic looking knots of flowers on their brims.

In Paris odd waistcoats are being worn with smart short and three-quarter coats.

The colored sash draped round the hips is popular with a great many summer gowns.

Cretonne comes in such charming designs this season that it looks as if it would at last be in favor as a dress material.

Artificial flowers are as much used as ever for dress ornaments and are prettier every day. Violets especially are perfect.

There are many new crepe de chine, and there are some beautiful silk crepe de chine, both plain and bordered, that promise to be greatly used for afternoon frocks.

Cotton velvets, cotton crepes and tussore are all being shown, and although it is as yet too early for models in these materials, they are to be among the favorites for the summer.

WON DINNER SET.
 The dinner set disposed of for the benefit of St. Aloysius' new church, Pewee Valley, at the auction given May 29 in Trinity Council Hall, was awarded to Francis Veith, 744 East Madison street.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Called From Exchanges.

Dr. Michael Garry was elected by Clare County Council as tuberculosis officer for the county.

The Tullamore Guardians have unanimously increased the salary of the new Workhouse Master, Martin Galvin.

The death has taken place at Ballinacorney, where he had been a curate for some years, of the Rev.
 Daniel Meenan.

A verdict of accidental death was returned at an inquest at Swanlinbar on James Maguire, a farmer, who was found dead on the roadside.

The monument erected to the memory of Michael Cusack in Drang-an, County Tipperary, was unveiled in the presence of a large gathering.

As there were no criminal cases for trial at the Quarter Sessions at Roscommon County Court Judge Wakely was presented with white gloves.

The diocese of Meath has sustained a severe loss by the death of the Rev. Richard Lynch, of Ashbourne, which occurred at the parochial house.

Hugh Murray, a farmer of Ard-keen, near Portlaffery, was drowned in Strangford Lough while engaged in a small flatboat cutting seaweed close inshore.

The death is announced, in his thirtieth year, of Rev. John O'Connor, at Cahirdaniel, one of the ablest and most promising of the younger school of clergy in the Kerry diocese.

Michael Fleming, of Shillelagh, was at the quarterly meeting of the Wicklow County Council co-opted a member of the council by eleven votes to nine given for John McCrea, of Cooneyhorn.

The Thomastown Guardians have unanimously re-elected Patrick Kavanagh as Master of the Workhouse permanently, the terms for which he has originally been appointed having expired.

At the fortnightly meeting of the Bantay Board of Guardians, Dr.
 James F. O'Mahony was unanimously appointed to the position of Medical Officer for the Durrus and Killohane Dispensary District of the Bantay Union.

At the meeting of the Westport Board of Guardians there were twelve applicants for the position of Master of the Workhouse in room of the late P. A. Lennon. Mrs. Lennon, widow of the late Master, was unanimously elected, all the candidates withdrawing.

A national teacher named John Cryan was found lying dead beside his bicycle on the road near his school at Glencullen, in the Bel-mullet district. It is thought that Cryan had been cycling to his school as usual when he met with an accident and received fatal injuries.

Judge Barry at Ballyglass Quarter Sessions, in addressing the grand jury, who had only for consideration one case, in which a man was indicted for stealing a bag of flour, regretted that they were brought there at trouble and expense, because there appeared to be no evidence against the accused.
